STET Paper II & BPSC TRE 4.0

Class 11–12 (Higher Secondary) Computer Science | Section-wise marks distribution

1. Bihar STET Paper II – Computer Science

One examination with a 100-mark Computer Science section and a 50-mark General Paper section. These are not two separate examinations.

Section / component	Questions	Marks
Computer Science (subject-specific)	100	100
Art of Teaching	30	30
General Knowledge	5	5
Environmental Science	5	5
Mathematical Aptitude	5	5
Logical Reasoning	5	5
General Paper subtotal	50	50
TOTAL	150	150

Pattern: 150 MCQs, 150 marks, 150 minutes; no negative marking, based on the STET 2026 structure discussed in this conversation.

2. BPSC TRE 4.0 – Class 11–12 Computer Science

The uploaded BPSC Advertisement No. 15/2026 describes one objective written examination of 150 marks.

Part / section	Questions	Marks
Part I – Language (Hindi / English / Urdu / Bangla)	30	30
Part II – General Studies	40	40
Part III – Computer Science	80	80
TOTAL	150	150

Pattern: 2 hours 30 minutes; objective MCQs; 1/3 mark deducted for each incorrect answer. Language is qualifying, with at least 30% required in Part I, as described in the uploaded advertisement.

3. Quick comparison

Feature	STET Paper II	BPSC TRE 4.0
Purpose	Teacher eligibility	Recruitment / merit
Computer Science marks	100	80
Other sections	50 (General Paper)	70 (Language + GS)
Total marks	150	150
Duration	150 minutes	150 minutes
Negative marking	No	1/3 per wrong answer

Source notes: BPSC figures are taken from the uploaded Advertisement No. 15/2026, especially pages 14–15. STET distribution is based on the STET 2026 structure described in the course information shared in this conversation. Check the latest BSEB notice for amendments. This document summarizes marks distribution, not the full syllabus.